1) Kluang Rubber Company (Malaya) Berhad

Board Composition

Sungei Bagan is led and managed by experienced Directors who have vast expertise in the palm oil industry, business, finance, management, marketing and law. Their skills and experience are what is needed to lead the Group to achieve its vision.

Currently, the Board comprises six (6) members made up of two (2) Executive Director, one (1) Non-Executive Director and three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors. The Board composition reflects a balance within executive directors and non-executive directors and complies with Paragraph 15.02(1) of the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities which requires at least two (2) or one-third (1/3) of the Board, whichever is the higher, to be Independent Directors.

The Independent Directors provide independent judgement, experience and objectivity. Independent Directors assist in ensuring that the interests of all Shareholders are indeed taken into account by the Board and that the relevant issues are subjected to objective and impartial consideration by the Board.

The role of Chairman is held by an Independent Non-Executive Director.

Board Meetings

The Board shall conduct at least four (4) scheduled meetings annually, with additional meetings to be convened as and when necessary. Besides Board meetings, the Directors also attend investment meetings, where Directors deliberate on the Group's participation in investments. Threshold of these investments will be reviewed as and when the Board deems necessary.

Appointments and Re-election

Appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the full Board, upon the recommendation from the Nomination Committee. In making these recommendations, the Nomination Committee will consider the required mix of skills, experience and diversity, including gender, where appropriate, which the Director in consideration can contribute to the Board.

The Articles of Association of the Company provides that every newly appointed Director to hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting at which they will retire and be subjected to re-election at the immediate Annual General Meeting.

Further, one third (1/3) of the Board shall retire from office and be eligible for re-election at every Annual General Meeting, and all the Directors shall submit themselves for re-election at least every three (3) years.

Pursuant to the Companies Act, 1965, Directors above seventy (70) years of age shall retire at every Annual General Meeting and may offer themselves for re-appointment to hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.

Independence of a Director

The Board assesses the independence of Independent Directors annually by taking into consideration their background, disclosed interests, family relationship and other the criteria set by the Nomination Committee for assessing the independence of Directors.

The tenure of an Independent Director shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years and if continued on the Board as Independent Director, the Board shall seek shareholder's approval or the said director will be re-designated as a Non-Independent Director.

New Directorship

Any Director accepting new directorship in other companies will be required to make known to the Board prior to his/her new appointment and give commitment to the Board that his/her time for attending Board meetings will not be compromise in any manner.

The Chairman is also required to notify the Board if he has any new directorship or significant commitments outside the Company.

Continuing Education Programs

All Directors must complete the Mandatory Accreditation Programs and Continuing Education Programs prescribed by Bursa Securities.

All Directors are encouraged to undergo relevant trainings and seminars at the Company's expense to further enhance their knowledge and to keep themselves abreast with developments in the market place, i.e. relevant new regulations, legislation and changing commercial risks whilst discharging their duties.

Board Duties and Responsibility

The Board's responsibility as a whole is to ensure the adequacy and integrity of the Group's risk management and its internal control system and being collectively responsible for the success of the Group.
